The firm of Charles von Loewenfeldt, Inc. is presently creating and producing films about contemporary life and problems in Japan on behalf of the United States-Japan Trade Council. All dissemination is done in the name of the U.S.-Japan Trade Council and that organization regularly files dissemination reports at such times as films are distributed in this country. Many of the films we produce are done in foreign languages and shipped abroad for use in those foreign countries--thus not disseminated within the United States as all.
